Play Notes :

If all works well, the Rohirrim scenario is not very difficult to succeed. But there are not many MPs in the deck. So, it would be necessary to accomplish secondary quests (factions in Anduin Vales, other major items, The Windlord found me, Wizard's Ring, Dreams of Lore...).

There are only 2 characters with homesite Edoras in the starting companies. It's because the Men have generally a low body. So, it's preferable to recruit them later, when you are well organized.

At the beginning of the game, build 2 companies (1 ranger in each). A company goes to Barrow-downs, the other to Ruined Signal Tower. Try to play major items. At Turn 2, a company can go to Isengard, the other to Glittering Caves. Try to put in play Red Arrow and Great Shield of Rohan as soon as possible. You can play Lucky Strike and The Old Trush against the Cave Worms in the Gap of Isen.

Play Gandalf in Lorien. Tap your Wizard to take Longbottom Leaf from your sideboard to your deck. So, you can later get two useful resources from the sideboard. Your Wizard must stay in a Haven for a while, and recruit characters with homesite Edoras (preferably Theoden and Eomer).

When your company is ready, go to Rohan. Put in play Riders of Rohan, and Shadowfax. You can not afford to miss the recruitment of this faction : if you don't have the Red Arrow, use Tempering Friendship and/or A Friend or Three. Play No Strangers at This Time on Edoras : Edoras is not discarded if you leave it. At tapped Edoras, Dunharrow, and Amon Hen, you can play Noble Steeds.
