

Middle-earth: Against the Shadow (July 1997)

Card List (170 Cards)

Original Promotion Material: This is an expansion set of over 150 cards for the Middle-earth Collectible Card Game. It is fully compatible with both Middle-earth: The Wizards and Middle-earth: The Lidless Eye. Middle-earth: Against the Shadow focuses on games with a Wizard player using resources from The Wizards competing against a Ringwraith player using resources from The Lidless Eye.

Against the Shadow enhances the flavor and excitement inherent in these conflicts: For Ringwraiths to match Wizards in the full range of strategies available, more Ringwraith resources are included—more items, more factions, more rings, more spells, etc.; To diversify hazard strategies for Wizard vs. Ringwraith play, more minion-specific and hero-specific hazards are included; Cards are included that allow a player to use his characters, allies, and factions as hazards against his opponent. This makes it possible for Glorfindel, Tom Bombadil, and the Riders of Rohan to attack a Ringwraith's minion companies. Similarly, any minion character, evil ally, and Sauronic faction can potentially attack a Wizard's hero companies; This set also expands the number of sites so that a Ringwraith can travel any place a Wizard can. Sold in booster packs of 12 cards (36 boosters per display); 2 rares, 4 uncommons and 6 commons per booster pack; r#: printed # times on the rare sheet, u#: # times on the uncommon sheet, c#: # times on the common sheet; the higher #, the more common a card is within its category.
